El Paseo Bank Receives “Exemplary Financial Institution Award” From Rancho Mirage Chamber of Commerce.

(Palm Desert—June 25, 2009) El Paseo Bank’s Rancho Mirage branch recently received a “Rammy” Award for Exemplary Financial Institution.” The awards were presented at the Westin Mission Hills Resort and Spa on June 17 at the 14th annual Rancho Mirage Chamber of Commerce Awards of Excellence Luncheon. Doug Allensworth, President of El Paseo Bank accepted the award on behalf of the entire bank. “We are honored to be recognized for a Rammy by the Chamber, said Allensworth.

Winners were selected by Rancho Mirage Chamber members choosing from five nominees in each of the twelve categories. “It’s important to acknowledge people in good times and bad times when they are doing well, said Chamber Spokesman, Darren Zetena.

El Paseo Bank’s Rancho Mirage branch opened in 2008 and has grown quickly to $32 million in deposits year-to-date. “We are very proud of all our team members in Rancho Mirage for their continuing efforts to provide top rate customer service to both long time customers and new ones,” explains El Paseo Bank’s Chairman and CEO, Andy Montgomery.

With three branches in CA, and two in Utah, El Paseo Bank continues to be a well capitalized bank.
